

Hoffman Grayson Architects LLP is an award-winning architecture and interiors firm based in Huntington, New York. We have dedicated ourselves to creating a diverse practice, focusing on design excellence and high-end professional service in a collaborative environment. Comprised of a talented group of licensed architects, interior designers, LEED APs and graduates, our 11-person firm has successfully completed hundreds of commercial, mixed-use and single-family residential projects across Long Island since its inception in 1981.

We are in search of ambitious design professionals who will bring their passion and positive energy to our growing team. The ideal candidates will showcase leadership skills, be highly motivated, participate in the exchange of ideas, excel in problem solving, and contribute in all facets of the design process. This is a unique opportunity to work on a multitude of rewarding projects and be a part of something special with great people in a fun atmosphere.
